WHEREAS, Assignor and Assignee have previously entered into a Settlement Agreement dated 1 March 2004 and a Reciprocal Deed of Restraint dated 31 March (the "Settlement"). Pursuant to the Settlement the business relating to the technology described in Schedule A was transferred to the Assignor and a further assurances clause was included whereby the Assignor agreed to formally assign all intellectual property in the business to the Assignee; and

WHEREAS, Assignee desires to acquire by formal, recordable assignment the entire worldwide right, title and interest in and to the patent applications listed in Schedule "A" to this Assignment, any corresponding patent applications, and any patents that may be granted for said inventions anywhere in Canada, the United States and throughout the world;

- 3.2 Subject to termination of the Licence in accordance with clause 8, the Licence will be for a perpetual term.
- 3.3 The rights granted to the Assignor under the Licence are personal to the Assignor who shall not be permitted to transfer or assign any such rights without the express prior written consent of the Assignee, provided however, that the Assignor may, jointly with the Assignee only, grant sublicences of the Intellectual Property to third parties on terms and conditions acceptable to the Assignee.
4. Effective Date
 - 4.1 The Assignment will be effective on and from, and the Licence will commence on, the Completion Date.
5. Payment of Licence Fee and Revenue Fee
 - 5.1 In consideration for the grant of the Licence by the Assignee and the Assignee's obligations in relation to maintenance of the Intellectual Property and the Intellectual Property Improvements as set out in clause 6.4 below, the Assignor will pay to the Assignee:
 - a. the Licence Fee plus GST (if any) annually on each anniversary of the Completion Date or, if such day is not a Business Day, on the next succeeding Business Day; and
 - b. in any year (the first such year commencing on the date of this Agreement) in which the Assignor makes a net profit arising directly from the use, development or other exploitation of the Intellectual Property, the Revenue Fee, which will represent a percentage of such net profit, such percentage, the payment dates for such Revenue Fee and the precise meaning of "net profit" to be negotiated in good faith between the Assignor and the Assignee subsequent to the date of this Deed on an annual basis. The initial percentage for next year of the Licence.
6. Covenants and Acknowledgments of the Assignor and the Assignee
 - 6.1 The Assignor:
 - a. acknowledges, and the Assignee warrants, that upon satisfaction of the post-closing obligations of the Assignor set out in clause 5 of the Sale Agreement, the Assignee shall be the sole legal owner of the Intellectual Property and the Intellectual Property Improvements;
 - b. acknowledges that the Assignee makes no warranties (other than as to ownership as set out in paragraph a. above and as to maintenance as set out in clause 6.4) in relation to the Intellectual Property and the Intellectual Property Improvements and, in particular, acknowledges that the Assignee makes no warranty as to whether or not any third party rights are, as at the Completion Date, or will be, infringed by the Intellectual Property or the Intellectual Property Improvements or as to whether the Intellectual Property or the Intellectual Property Improvements are, as at the Completion Date, or will continue to be, valid;
 - c. undertakes not to, and will not, at any time challenge or otherwise call into question the validity of any of the Intellectual Property or the Intellectual Property Improvements; and
 - d. undertakes not to, and will not, take any action which may prejudice or harm the Intellectual Property or the ownership by the Assignee of the Intellectual Property or the Intellectual Property Improvements.

6.2 The Assignor will give notice in writing to the Assignee immediately upon learning of any infringement or threatened infringement of the Intellectual Property or the Intellectual Property Improvements.

6.3 In the event that activities are carried on by a third party which constitute an infringement of the Intellectual Property or the Intellectual Property Improvements or any part of it, then the Assignee, in consultation with the Assignor, will take action to stop the infringement as the Assignee sees fit. If the Assignor requires the Assignee to take action to stop such infringement and the Assignee thinks fit, the parties will share the expense of any action equally. If the Assignee does not take action to stop such infringement, the Assignor may take action on its own account and in its own name, or in the name of the Assignee if the Assignee consents, but the Assignor will pay, and will indemnify and keep indemnified the Assignee against, all costs and expenses in respect of any such action.

6.4 In consideration for payment by the Assignor to the Assignee of the Licence Fee and the Revenue Fee and without prejudice to clause 6.3 above, the Assignee undertakes to manage the portfolio comprising the Intellectual Property and the Intellectual Property Improvements. In managing the portfolio, the Assignee will maintain and protect its ownership, and the validity, of the Intellectual Property and the Intellectual Property Improvements for at least the duration of the Licence, except where the Assignee, either in its sole discretion or in consultation with the Assignor, determines that it is not necessary or not commercially viable to continue to maintain or protect the ownership and/or the validity of any particular aspect of the Intellectual Property or the Intellectual Property Improvements.

7. Intellectual Property Improvements

7.1 The Assignor acknowledges and agrees that any further developments it may make to the Intellectual Property (the "Intellectual Property Improvements") during the term of the Licence will belong solely and exclusively to the Assignee.

7.2 Any Intellectual Property Improvements made by the Assignor pursuant to the Assignor's exercise of its rights under the Licence will be assigned by the Assignor to the Assignee and, if required by the Assignee, the Assignor will execute a formal deed of assignment (and any other documentation necessary to effect such assignment, including powers of attorney and deeds of assignment from inventors) and the Assignee will have the sole right to apply for any patents and/or to obtain any copyright protection in respect of any such Intellectual Property Improvements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any such Intellectual Property Improvements shall, upon their creation, automatically form part of the Intellectual Property licensed to the Assignor pursuant to the Licence in accordance with clause 3.1.

7.3 For the avoidance of doubt, clause 7.2 constitutes a written assignment by the Assignor to the Assignee of the Assignor's future copyright in any copyright works created during the course of the Licence.

8. Termination of Licence

8.1 Subject to clause 8.4, the Licence may be terminated by either party by written notice if the other party commits a material breach of the Licence and fails to remedy the breach within 20 Business Days of receipt of written notice from the other party requiring it to do so.

8.2 If:

- a. the Assignor has a person in the nature of an insolvency manager or receiver appointed for the whole or any part of its assets, or if an order is made or a resolution is passed for its winding up (unless as a part of a scheme for reconstruction or amalgamation); or

- b. the Assignor takes any action or causes or induces or supports any action to call into question the validity of the Intellectual Property.

then the Assignee may by notice to the Assignor immediately terminate the Licence.

- 8.3 The Assignee may terminate the Licence by 20 Business Days' written notice to the Assignor for any reason whatsoever.

- 8.4 The Assignor may not cancel, terminate or withdraw from the Licence at any time during the twelve month period commencing on the Completion Date without incurring a penalty.

9. Indemnity

- 9.1 The Assignor will indemnify and hold harmless the Assignee in respect of all liabilities, costs (including costs as between solicitor and client), losses (including economic), claims or demands arising out of or flowing from any material breach or negligent act or omission by the Assignor of the Licence, including any act or omission by any of the Assignor's employees, contractors or agents.

10. Limitation of Liability

- 10.1 The Assignee will not be liable to the Assignor (or any third party) for any indirect, special, incidental, consequential or exemplary damages or losses suffered by the Assignor (or any third party) arising out of the terms of the Licence and whether attributable to contract, tort (including negligence) equity or otherwise.

11. Assignment

- 11.1 The Assignor may not assign this Deed or the Licence without the prior written consent of the Assignee.

12. Confidentiality

- 12.1 Neither party may disclose the provisions of this Deed or any Confidential Information of the other party, except:

- after obtaining the written consent of the other party; or
- as required by applicable law or a stock exchange or any court or government agency after submitting the information intended to be released for prior approval of the other party prior to such release, such prior approval not to be unreasonably withheld; or
- as required in connection with the enforcement of this Deed.

provided in all cases that each party must use its reasonable endeavours to ensure that all permitted disclosures are kept confidential by the party to whom the disclosure is made.

13. Further Assurances

- 13.1 The Assignor and the Assignee will do all things and execute all documents necessary to obtain the full benefit of this Deed in accordance with its true intent including all things necessary to perfect the Assignment and to give effect to the grant of the Licence under this Deed.

14. No Waiver
- 14.1 No waiver or delay on the part of any party in exercising any power or right under this Deed will operate as a waiver, nor will any single or partial exercise of such right or power preclude any other or future exercise of the same, or any other right or power under this Deed.
15. Severability
- 15.1 If a provision of this Deed, or a right or remedy of any party under this Deed is invalid or unenforceable, the parties agree it shall be read down or severed to the extent of the invalidity or unenforceability.
16. Entire agreement
- 16.1 This Deed and the Sale Agreement record all matters relating to the Assignment and the Licence and shall supersede all previous arrangements whether oral, written or both relating to the Assignment and the Licence.
17. Jurisdiction and Governing Law
- 17.1 This Deed is governed by the laws of New Zealand and is subject to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of New Zealand.
18. Counterparts
- 18.1 This Deed may be executed in counterparts, all of which together will constitute one and the same instrument. Either party may execute this Deed by signing such counterpart. Any such counterpart may be provided to the other party by facsimile transmission with the intent that receipt by a party of a facsimile of any executed copy will be as binding and effective as receipt of the original.
19. Costs
- 19.1 The parties will meet their own costs in relation to the negotiation, preparation and implementation of this Deed.
20. Notices
- 20.1 Any notice produced under this Deed shall be in writing addressed to the other party according to the details designated by such other party in writing. Until any other designation is given, the contact details of each party are as set out in Schedule 2.
- 20.2 Delivery may be effected by hand, fastpost or airmail (with the postage prepaid), facsimile or email.
- 20.3 Any notice given under this Deed shall be deemed to have been received:
- a. at the time of delivery, if delivered by hand;
 - b. on the second Business Day after the date of mailing, if sent by fastpost or airmail with the postage prepaid;
 - c. on the day on which the transmission is sent, if sent by facsimile, provided that in any dispute between any of the parties over the fact of transmission, production by the sender of a confirmation of clear transmission shall be conclusive evidence of transmission and shall bind the parties accordingly; and

- d. In the case of an email, upon the earlier of:
- I. receipt by the sending party of confirmation of successful delivery; or
 - II. 2 Business Days after despatch, provided that the sending party does not receive any indication of failure or delay of delivery within 2 Business Days after despatch.

20.4 For the purposes of this clause 20, "despatch" occurs when the relevant email first leaves the sending party's network for delivery to the receiving party's network.
